Because these windows are very valuable on account of their wonderful execution and the profuse expenditure of painted glass and sapphire glass, we appointed an official master craftsman for their protection, and also a goldsmith...who would receive their allowances, namely, coins from the altar and flour from the common storehouse of the brethren, and who would never neglect their duty, to look after these [works of art].’ – Abbot Suger (1081-1151) about the Abbey of St Denis, near Paris a) Who does ‘WE’ refer to in the passage?
